

A Letter from the President

Happy New Year to You! Now that the holiday season is behind us, we find our attention quickly shifting back to business. We are looking forward to a very active 2012 at the Davie County Chamber. We will continue to communicate using our member mailings, Chamber eLink Newsletter, broadcast emails and social media to ensure our members stay informed of what's going on.

We will introduce some new programs including a Chamber leads & networking group and a series of educational programs on relevant topics for our businesses. We will continue our Chamber Champions sponsorship program and already have our first 2012 Champion – Yadtel Group.

We have a great Business After Hours scheduled to launch our networking events for this year. Mark your calendar for Tuesday, Jan 24th and plan to enjoy an evening with our co-hosts: Big Brothers Big Sisters, Donald Bowles CPA, Century 21 Triad, Edward Jones – Brenda Battle and Marlin Chiropractic Center (our newest member!). If you are thinking about hosting a Breakfast or B.A.H. give us a call so we can get you on our calendar—dates are starting to fill up. (751-3304)

Business in the News

Trailers of the East Coast are doing more and more custom projects in their facility here in Mocksville. "Our business is changing and we would love to let people know about it", stated Clint Junker. Their latest project, a mobile paint store for Sherwin-Williams, is a unit that will roll in when a store is devastated by a natural disaster. It will take the place of the devastated store until a new store is built.

Sherwin Williams provided the shell for this project and Trailers of the East Coast completed the build from interior cabinets and equipment to the exterior graphics.

For more information on custom builds or stock trailers, contact Trailers of the East Coast at 336.751.2377 or check out their website at www.trailerseast.com.
