Sage Garden Care Center Hires Timogi Jackson

Davie County, NC, December 12, 2017 -- Sage Garden Care Center, LLC of Mocksville, NC announced this week that Timogi Jackson has joined their care team of certified life coaches. Timogi Jackson brings a wealth of empowerment coaching experience to the organization including a signature line of coaching services for men and women.

Timogi will add to Sage Garden's service success by providing a wider set of unique coaching options to residents in Davie County, surrounding areas, and internationally through online video and telephone coaching. She is an Empowerment Specialist, teaching people to align their thoughts, beliefs, and actions to create desired growth and change in their personal and professional lives.

According to a survey conducted by PROfusion Public Relations, a data science marketing services company, those who are coached report 67% higher level of self-awareness, 62% smarter goal-setting, 60% more balanced life, 57% lower stress levels, 52% self-discovery and 52% more self-confidence. Coaching adds tremendous value and yields a high return on investment to clients.

Timogi comments, "I am excited to start a new chapter with Sage Garden and I look forward to working with the team to further cultivate their already extensive service offerings." Chuck Taylor, Owner of Sage Garden Care Center adds, "Timogi's enthusiasm for empowering others is powerful and inspiring. She is a perfect addition to the Sage Garden team, providing greater depth to our services in both coaching and consulting. I am grateful for her services and know that our clients both current and future will be better equipped as a result of her gifts."

Timogi Jackson specializes in I'm A Lady and A Woman Empowerment Coaching where she teaches women to embrace the essence of their femininity their own way. Her men's coaching services equip men with interpersonal tools to help build and restore healthy relationships. She has a very candid approach to personal growth and development.
