Davie County Chamber of Commerce Celebrates Ribbon Cuttings for Two New Downtown Mocksville Businesses

MOCKSVILLE, NORTH CAROLINA: The Davie County Chamber of Commerce recently held ribbon cutting ceremonies for The Bomar Law Firm and Laced with Grace Bridal Boutique; two of the newest businesses to historic downtown Mocksville. These businesses are in good company as Mocksville continues to attract a wide range of new retail, restaurants and professional service providers to Main Street and surrounding area. "Davie County is experiencing an economic vitality driven by the tremendous growth and expansion of the business community. We are especially pleased to see increased vibrancy in downtown Mocksville and anticipate welcoming several more new businesses in the coming months." said Carolyn McManamy, President of the Davie County Chamber of Commerce.

Previously located in Winston-Salem, The Bomar Law Firm is now located at 148 West Water Street in the old SunTrust building. After an extensive renovation to the property, Attorney Chad Bomar and his wife Casey are now looking forward to growing their practice here in Davie County. As an experienced lawyer and business attorney, Chad Bomar has handled a wide range of legal matters since beginning his career in 1999. He has received multiple accolades recognizing his legal work including The Rising Star designation given to no more than 2.5% of lawyers in North Carolina. Business Leader Magazine has also recognized him as a Top Lawyer of Charlotte and a Top Lawyer of the Triad.

Laced with Grace Bridal Boutique, a new boutique located at 58-1 Court Square has made quite a name for itself since opening. Owner Jaclyn Wisecarver, a recent graduate of Liberty University, says she is very excited to bring this specialty boutique to Davie County. "I have always adored all things fashion, so owning my very own bridal boutique is a dream come true," said Jaclyn. Laced with Grace Bridal Boutique is the epitome of class and style with an exceptional array of inventory fit for any bride who wants a home-town, personal experience catered specifically to meet her needs.
